

ATTACHMENT A

(updated December 6, 2023)

The following individuals have submitted for consideration of appointment to the Gaming Policy Advisory Committee (GPAC). Commissioner will be considering appointments to the following GPAC seats:

Category A (An employee of the Bureau of Gambling Control)	CATEGORY B (A representative from an agency or nonprofit concerned w/problem gambling and/or gambling addiction)	Category D (A licensee, agent, or employee from an actively licensed cardroom with 25 licensed tables or more)	CATEGORY E (A licensee, agent, or employee from an actively licensed cardroom with less than 25 licensed tables)	CATEGORY F (An applicant affiliated with local law enforcement from a local government where an approved ordinance allows legalized gaming)
1. Jamin Teague, Assistant Director, Bureau of Gambling Control	1. Sosha Marasigan-Quintero, MPA, Principle of Behavioral Health Promotion Section, California Department of Public Health	1. David Fried*, Designated Agent, Law Office of David M. Fried	1. Daniel DeLaney, Key Employee, Outlaws Card Parlour 2. Art Van Loon, Designated Agent, AVL Casino Group Inc. 3. Matthew Baldwin, Assistant Casino Manager, Lake Elsinore Casino 4. John Michael Stacy, Assistant General Manager, 500 Club Casino	1. Jeffrey Colbert, Sergeant, Kern County Sheriff's Office 2. Kirill Yermanov, Gaming Administrator, San Jose Police Department

Applicant is a currently seated GPAC member and is eligible for reappointment. Per the GPAC Selection Process, since no applications were received for Category D and the current member is eligible, interested in reappointment, and supported by the GPAC for reappointment, the current member was not required to submit an application or be interviewed.

Please note, applications are being accepted through December 8, 2023. Attachment A will be modified and a revised copy will be posted on the Commission's website if additions are made.