All public comment periods mandated under the rulemaking provisions of the Administrative Procedure Act (APA) having ended, the Commission may proceed with the final adoption of the proposed action without taking further public comment. All comments received during the various APA public comment periods will be considered in the Commission's deliberations.

While the APA does require that comments made outside any public comment period be included in the rulemaking file for this proposed action, it does not require that those comments be summarized or responded to in the Final Statement of Reasons.

The Commission may adopt the proposed regulations as modified June 18, 2014; adopt the proposed regulations with additional modifications, subject to a 15-day written comment period pursuant to Government Code section 11346.8(c); or direct that modification to the proposed regulations be prepared and noticed for a 15-day written comment period before taking any further action.

PUBLIC COMMENT

The Commission affords an opportunity to members of the public to address the Commission on items of interest that are within the Commission's jurisdiction. The Commission is not permitted to take action on items that are not identified on the agenda. The Commission "reserves the right to limit speakers if necessary to provide an adequate opportunity for all to be heard."
