Statement of Qualification (Please complete on a separate piece of paper and attach to application)

1. A description of your qualifications.
2. An explanation of why you are interested in serving on this committee.
3. Three main issues you believe the California Gaming Control Commission should address.

Acknowledgement

I acknowledge and understand that by submitting this application to serve on the Gaming Policy Advisory Committee I will be required to attend meetings, that the frequency of these meeting may be monthly, and currently there are no provisions for reimbursement for any cost associated with traveling to and from these meetings or for any wages lost for participating. I further acknowledge that I will commit to serve up to two years on the committee, if chosen.

Furthermore, I understand that this committee's purpose pursuant to Business and Professions Code Section 19817 is to act in an advisory capacity to the California Gambling Control Commission on regulatory policy and other gambling related issues, excluding Tribal Gaming.

GAMING POLICY ADVISORY COMMITTEE
Selection Process
Revised September 2019

APPOINTMENT

Pursuant to Business & Professions Code Section 19817, there shall be ten (10) members of the Gaming Policy Advisory Committee (GPAC), who are appointed directly by the California Gambling Control Commission (Commission).

TERM

Members of the Gaming Policy Advisory Committee may serve three (3) consecutive terms of up to two (2) years each on a respective Category seat. If there is an expired seat with no appointed candidate, and the Commission is actively recruiting to fill the vacancy, the incumbent member could serve up to one additional year at the request of the Executive Director. If after one additional year no appointment has been made to fill the expired seat, and the Commission continues to actively recruit, further exceptions to the term limits for the expired seat can be approved by the Commission at a publically noticed meeting.

Member Terms were established in such a way, and shall remain configured in such a way, that one half (1/2) of the members' terms expire each year.

REPRESENTATION

Members of the Gaming Policy Advisory Committee shall be appointed under the following representative categories:

PUBLIC MEMBERS (5): Categories A, B, F, G, H: LICENSEE MEMBERS (5): Categories C, D, E

- A: An employee from the Bureau of Gambling Control, Department of Justice (1 seat)
- B: An agency or nonprofit concerned with problem gambling and/or gambling addiction (1 seat)
- C: A licensee, agent, or employee from a Third Party Provider of Proposition Player Services (1 seat)
- D: A licensee, agent, or employee from a cardroom with 25 tables or more in operation (2 seats)
- E: A licensee, agent, or employee from a cardroom with less than 25 tables in operation (2 seats)
- F: An applicant affiliated with local law enforcement from a local government where an approved ordinance allows legalized gaming (1 seat)
- G: A professional with accounting or business background and not currently affiliated with any CA legalized gambling entity (1 seat)
- H: General member at large not currently affiliated with any CA legalized gambling entity (1 seat)

Members of the Gambling Policy Advisory Committee appointed under these categories shall demonstrate and provide evidence of competency during the selection process and prior to their appointment or reappointment.

If appointed, incumbents must maintain eligibility throughout their term(s) served.

SELECTION

Applicants who wish to be considered for recommendation to the Gaming Policy Advisory Committee shall complete an Application for Appointment to the Gaming Policy Advisory Committee and submit to the Executive Director of the Commission. After being properly submitted, if a vacancy exists in which the applicant is eligible, the applicant will be interviewed by a selection panel which shall include the Executive Director and two (2) sitting members of the Gaming Policy Advisory Committee. Upon completion of these interview panels, the Executive Director shall make a written recommendation for appointment of those individuals qualified to the Commissioners for consideration at a publicly noticed meeting.

CALIFORNIA GAMBLING CONTROL COMMISSION
GAMING POLICY ADVISORY COMMITTEE
Selection Process
Revised September 2019

Committee members that have reached their term limits in their respective seats and wish to continue their service with the GPAC may apply for vacant or upcoming vacancies in category seats in which they have or possess the qualifications or personal experience set forth by the California Gambling Control Commission.

RESIGNATION / REMOVAL

The Commission may remove members of the Committee at any time, for any reason.

Committee Members may resign from the Committee by emailing a statement from the email address they listed on their GPAC application, or from another personal or professional email account which was previously provided to the Executive Director of the Commission. The statement should expressly indicate that they are resigning, the reason for resigning, and include the date on which the resignation will be effective.

Following the removal or resignation of a Committee member, notification of all current vacancy(ies) on the Committee, including detail of the category(ies) in which the vacancies exist, will be sent to the Commission's mailing list, and posted on the Commission's website. Notifications will continue to be sent on a periodic basis until the Commission selects a new member for the Committee.

The newly selected member will complete the term of the Committee Member who they replaced. Following completion of that term, they may be selected to serve up to three more terms consecutively.

RENEWAL

A notification of the expiring terms of GPAC Committee Members will be sent to the Commission's mailing list, and posted on the Commission's website, not less than three (3) months prior to the expiration dates.

Members of the Committee in good standing, who want to remain on the Committee for another term, meet the requirements of the category they were elected to and all other requirements of the GPAC, and who run unopposed in their category, may be recommended to the Commission with a consensus from the GPAC without a formal interview process.
