* Disclosure of your U.S. social security account number is mandatory. Section 30 of the Business and Professions Code, section 17520 of the Family Code, and Public Law 94-455 (42 USC § 405(c)(2)(C)) authorize collection of your social security account number. Your social security account number will be used exclusively for tax enforcement purposes, for purposes of compliance with any judgment or order for child or family support in accordance with section 17520 of the Family Law Code. If you fail to disclose your social security account number, your application will not be processed and you may be reported to the Franchise Tax Board, which may assess a $100 penalty against you.

Effective July 1, 2012, the California Gambling Control Commission is required to deny an application and to suspend the license/registration/permit/approval of any applicant or licensee who has outstanding state tax obligations and appears on either the Franchise Tax Board's or Board of Equalization's certified list of the top 500 tax delinquencies over $100,000 (Business and Professions Code section 494.5).
