A. Club One Casino: Club One Casino, Inc.
Kyle Kirkland, President, Chief Financial Officer, Treasurer, Secretary, Director, Shareholder
Dana Messina, Shareholder

Comments Received From:

Ray Marshall, Attorney for Club One, in person
Yolanda Morrow, Assistant Director, Bureau of Gambling Control, in person
Kyle Kirkland, Owner Club One, in person

Mr. Marshall noted that no new information has come forward, his clients feel very comfortable with the conditions to be placed on the cardroom, and the Club One Casino is willing to accept the proposed conditions.

Public Comment:

Joseph Davis, Attorney, in person
Crystal Xiong, in person
Mike Her, in person
Ruth Rapp, via telephone

Mr. Davis referenced the letter provided to the Commission and asserted the letter contained new items, including three class action lawsuits which settled in 2016. Mr. Davis introduced Ms. Xiong. Ms. Xiong introduced her husband, Mike Her. Ms. Xiong provided comment regarding her and her husband's employment at Club One Casino and Kyle Kirkland.

There were large photographs referenced and displayed during Ms. Xiong's public comment, which were placed at the back of the room for public viewing after her public comment was provided.

Mr. Davis introduced Ms. Ruth Rapp. Ms. Rapp provided comment regarding her employment at Club One Casino and Kyle Kirkland. Mr. Davis further discussed his concerns, including those referenced in his correspondence.

Mr. Kirkland addressed the public comments made with regard to his character.

Commissioner LaBrie asked Mr. Davis to confirm if he represented any of the plaintiffs of any of the actions mentioned. Mr. Davis responded that he represented three shift managers from Club One Casino in the past including Leon Bernardi, Jon Strecker, and Edward Mason. Mr. Davis confirmed he still represents Mr. Bernardi in an administrative proceeding.

Commission Meeting Minutes of February 22, 2018

Commissioner To asked Mr. Kirkland if the class-action lawsuits mentioned in public comment were settled prior to going to trial. Mr. Kirkland responded that there were four class-action lawsuits brought about in April 2011 in which three were resolved in mediation, and the last lawsuit, a lawsuit alleging FMLA violations, was dismissed.

Assistant Director Morrow clarified that the Bureau recommended conditions to the Commission. Assistant Director Morrow further noted that the Bureau's position remains the same as stated in the January 8, 2018 letter, which is consistent with the option to take no action and maintain the referral to an APA hearing.

Commissioner LaBrie noted that on one hand much of the litigation that had occurred has been resolved. Commissioner LaBrie also noted, on the other hand, with the information submitted, concerns and questions exist that an APA hearing could resolve.

Commissioner To concurred with Commissioner LaBrie, and noted that his concerns stem from the repetitive conduct and how they could relate to one's character. Commissioner To noted he was leaning towards taking no action on this item to maintain the APA hearing process.

Chairman Evans referenced the gravamen of his concern were the findings within the New York decision.

Mr. Marshall noted that there is no new information and that sending this item to an evidentiary hearing will yield more of the same and will cost time and money.

Chairman Evans noted that he has had concerns about the New York case since 2015 and indicated that these concerns should be addressed in an APA hearing. Commissioner LaBrie added that the APA hearing would resolve the questions and concerns that the Commission has.

Mr. Marshall proposed that the Commission and Club One Casino set up a conference with staff to allow for specific questions and issues to be addressed and handled properly.

Mr. Kirkland stated that he believed he addressed the financial and litigation concerns identified in the 2015 referral letter and that the New York decision has been vacated. Mr. Kirkland disputed the public comment allegations with regard to his character and confirmed that Club One Casino treats all employees consistently with hiring, training, and expectations.

No action was taken; the referral of the Renewal Applications to an APA evidentiary hearing was maintained.

- A. Bruce's Bar and Casino: John Gallo, Sole Proprietor

- B. Casino M8trix: Garden City, Inc.
Lunardi Family Living Trust, Shareholder
Peter Lunardi III, Trustee, Chief Executive Officer, President, Director
Jeanine Lunardi, Trustee, Secretary, Director
Patrick Tierney, Vice President, Director, Shareholder
Jamie Tierney, Shareholder

Comments Received From:

Robert Lindo, Director, General Counsel and Designated Agent, in person
Maureen Harrington, Outside Counsel, via telephone
Yolanda Morrow, Assistant Director, Bureau of Gambling Control, in person
Adrianna Alcalá-Beshara, Deputy Director, Gambling Control Commission, in person

Commissioner LaBrie thanked the Bureau and Mr. Lindo, on behalf of Casino M8trix, for the exchange of information in the last few days.

Mr. Lindo noted that Casino M8trix would be willing to accept the Commission staff's recommended condition along with the two prior conditions.

Chairman Evans noted the Commission and Bureau has received public comment in the form of written correspondence, regarding the accounting practices of the cardroom, and asked the Bureau if the issues have been reviewed.

Commission Meeting Minutes of February 22, 2018

Assistant Director Morrow noted the 2016 financials were reviewed and no issues were identified; however, the Bureau reviewed the 2017 financials and found something that may be a potential issue of compliance with the Generally Accepted Accounting Principles (GAAP) that requires additional time for review. Assistant Director Morrow noted if the Commissioners would like audited financials, the Bureau would have them ready sometime after April 2018.

Deputy Director Alcalá-Beshara confirmed that Casino M8trix can be extended for six months through August 2018.

Ms. Harrington provided a response that the letters were sent the day before the Commission meeting and came from litigation adversaries. She noted that as a result of the timing, the Cardroom was unable to prepare a response. Ms. Harrington identified John Park as one of the parties that is presently suing the Lunardis in Santa Clara Superior Court seeking to obtain an order of transfer of 50% shares in Garden City, Inc. Ms. Harrington further stated that Mr. Park's letter is not sent in a position of altruism it is sent from a litigation adversary attempting to use the regulatory process for litigation advantage.

Chairman Evans specified that the point is well taken and the Commission is well-versed on the litigation between the parties.

Ms. Harrington further noted there is pending litigation in Santa Clara Superior Court over what distributions, if any, Eric Swallow is entitled to. It is the outcome of that litigation that will determine whether or not any of the prior tax statements need to be amended or if they are correct. Ms. Harrington then noted that at this point, they are dealing with a set of unknowns and the answers to the issues raised with respect to the financials may not be concluded until such time as the litigation is concluded.

Chairman Evans acknowledged and thanked Ms. Harrington for her comments. Chairman Evans indicated that if this matter is continued, the aforementioned uncertainties should have a more precise picture in six months when the item returns to the Commission for consideration.

Commissioner LaBrie notated her concerns regarding issues at the local level.

Chairman Evans asked the Bureau if the Bureau has investigated what the City of San Jose is investigating. Further, Assistant Director Morrow offered that it looks like the alleged violations would be a local ordinance violation. The Bureau is currently waiting to learn about the outcome of the hearing. The Bureau has not received information confirming the issues are against Garden City Inc. and Casino M8trix and not necessarily the applicants.
